5 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

7 ROGELIO CALDERON,
8 Plaintiff,
9 v.
10 PHUC LAM, et al.,
11 Defendants.

Case No. 18-cv-04384-KAW (PR)

ORDER OF SERVICE; DENYING REQUEST FOR APPOINTMENT OF

12

13 Plaintiff Rogelio Calderon, a state prisoner incarcerated at the California Training Facility 14 ("CTF") in Soledad, has filed a pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging the 15 violation of his constitutional rights by medical personnel at CTF. Plaintiff has consented to the 16 jurisdiction of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge over this action. Plaintiff has filed 17 a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"), which is granted in a separate order.
18 Plaintiff also moves for the appointment of counsel. As discussed below, this motion is denied.
19 The Court now addresses the claims asserted in Plaintiff's complaint.

20 DISCUSSION

21

I. Standard of Review

22

23 A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks 24 redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C.
25 § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims 26 that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek 27 monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). Pro se 28 pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

1 To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements:
2 (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that 3 the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v.
4 Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

5 Liability may be imposed on an individual defendant under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 if the 6 plaintiff can show that the defendant's actions both actually and proximately caused the 7 deprivation of a federally protected right. Lemire v. California Dep't of Corrections &
8 Rehabilitation, 726 F.3d 1062, 1074 (9th Cir. 2013); Leer v. Murphy, 844 F.2d 628, 634 (9th Cir.
9 1988); Harris v. City of Roseburg, 664 F.2d 1121, 1125 (9th Cir. 1981). A person deprives 10 another of a constitutional right within the meaning of § 1983 if he does an affirmative act, 11 participates in another's affirmative act or omits to perform an act which he is legally required to 12 do, that causes the deprivation of which the plaintiff complains. Leer, 844 F.2d at 633.

13 II. Plaintiff's Claims

14 In his complaint, Plaintiff alleges the following:

15 In February 2017, Plaintiff began experiencing severe chest pain, shortness of breath, sharp 16 pain radiating up and down his left arm, stabbing pain in his upper back, fatigue and dizziness. On 17 February 1, 2017, Plaintiff saw Defendant Dr. Phuc Lam who dismissed Plaintiff's symptoms as 18 gas. Lam falsely noted in his medical notes that Plaintiff did not complain of chest pain, shooting 19 pain, nausea, shortness of breath and headaches. On May 2, 2017, Plaintiff saw Defendant Nurse 20 Evelyn Hernandez who mocked, teased and accused Plaintiff of feigning his symptoms. On May 21 9, 2017, Lam accused Plaintiff of being a "baby" and told him to "stop whining." Later that day, 22 both Lam and Hernandez mocked Plaintiff for being a baby. Plaintiff asked Lam to refer him to 23 an outside hospital for treatment of his symptoms, but Lam refused to do so.

24 On May 16, 2017, Plaintiff was seen by Defendant Nurse Alberto Ramirez who told 25 Plaintiff that if Lam, his primary care physician, did not believe Calderon's symptoms were real, 26 he did not believe they were real either. Ramirez also told Plaintiff his symptoms were caused by 27 indigestion or gas and he would advise him on better eating.

28 On May 18, 2017, a correctional officer noticed Plaintiff appeared to be sick and was in

1 distress. When Plaintiff told the correctional officer his symptoms, the officer called for 2 emergency medical assistance. Plaintiff was rushed to an outside hospital by ambulance. The 3 doctors at Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital determined that Plaintiff had suffered a series of 4 strokes and heart attacks. They also found that Plaintiff's arteries were significantly blocked 5 requiring multiple cardiac catheterizations, surgery and an extensive hospital stay.

6 These allegations, when liberally construed, appear to give rise to a cognizable Eighth 7 Amendment claim against all Defendants for being deliberately indifferent to Plaintiff's serious 8 medical condition.

9 III. Appointment of Counsel

10 Plaintiff moves for the appointment of counsel because he is unskilled in the law and has 11 sought the assistance of a fellow prisoner in drafting this complaint.

12 There is no constitutional right to counsel in a civil case unless an indigent litigant may 13 lose his physical liberty if he loses the litigation. See Lassiter v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 452 U.S. 18, 14 25 (1981); Rand v. Rowland, 113 F.3d 1520, 1525 (9th Cir. 1997) (no constitutional right to 15 counsel in § 1983 action), withdrawn in part on other grounds on reh'g en banc, 154 F.3d 952
16 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc). The court may ask counsel to represent an indigent litigant under 28 17 U.S.C. § 1915 only in “exceptional circumstances,” the determination of which requires an 18 evaluation of both (1) the likelihood of success on the merits, and (2) the ability of the plaintiff to 19 articulate his claims pro se in light of the complexity of the legal issues involved. See id. at 1525; 20 Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 1017 (9th Cir. 1991); Wilborn v. Escalderon, 789 F.2d 1328, 21 1331 (9th Cir. 1986). Both factors must be viewed together before reaching a decision on a 22 request for counsel under § 1915. See id.

23 The Court is unable to assess at this time whether exceptional circumstances exist which 24 would warrant seeking volunteer counsel to accept a pro bono appointment. The proceedings are 25 at an early stage and it is premature for the Court to determine Plaintiff's likelihood of success on 26 the merits.

27 Accordingly, the request for appointment of counsel is DENIED without prejudice. If, in 28 the future, the Court concludes it is necessary to appoint counsel to represent Plaintiff, it shall do

1 so sua sponte.

2 CONCLUSION

3 Based on the foregoing, the Court issues the following Orders:

4 1. Liberally construed, the allegations appear to give rise to a cognizable Eighth 5 Amendment claim for deliberate indifference to Plaintiff's serious medical needs against all 6 Defendants.

7 2. The Clerk of the Court shall mail a Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of 8 Service of Summons, two copies of the Waiver of Service of Summons, a copy of the complaint 9 (docket no. 1) and all attachments thereto, a copy of this Order, and a copy of the form "Consent 10 or Declination to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction" to Dr. Phuc Lam, Nurse Evelyn Hernandez and 11 Nurse Alberto Ramirez at the California Training Facility in Soledad, California. This form can 12 also be found at www.cand.uscourts.gov/civilforms. The Clerk shall also mail a copy of the 13 complaint and a copy of this Order to the State Attorney General's Office in San Francisco, and a 14 copy of this Order to Plaintiff.

15 3. Defendants are cautioned that Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires 16 them to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. Pursuant 17 to Rule 4, if Defendants, after being notified of this action and asked by the Court, on behalf of 18 Plaintiff, to waive service of the summons, fail to do so, they will be required to bear the cost of 19 such service unless good cause be shown for their failure to sign and return the waiver forms. If 20 service is waived, this action will proceed as if Defendants had been served on the date that the 21 waiver is filed, except that pursuant to Rule 12(a)(1)(A)(ii), Defendants will not be required to 22 serve and file an answer before sixty days from the date on which the request for waiver was sent.
23 (This allows a longer time to respond than would be required if formal service of summons is 24 necessary.)

25 Defendants are advised to read the statement set forth at the foot of the waiver form that 26 more completely describes the duties of the parties regarding waiver of service of the summons. If 27 service is waived after the date provided in the Notice but before Defendants have been personally 28 served, the answer shall be due sixty days from the date on which the request for waiver was sent

1 or twenty days from the date the waiver form is filed, whichever is later.

2 4. Defendants shall file their Consent or Declination to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction on or 3 before the date their answer is due.

4 5. The following briefing schedule shall govern dispositive motions in this action:

5 a. No later than thirty days from the date the answer is due, Defendants shall file a 6 motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. If Defendants file a motion for 7 summary judgment, it shall be supported by adequate factual documentation and shall conform in 8 all respects to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56. If Defendants believe this case cannot be 9 resolved by summary judgment, they shall so inform the Court prior to the date the summary 10 judgment motion is due. All papers filed with the Court shall be promptly served on Plaintiff.

11 At the time of filing the motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion, 12 Defendants shall comply with the Ninth Circuit's decision in Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934 (9th 13 Cir. 2012), and provide Plaintiff with notice of what is required of him to oppose a summary 14 judgment motion. If the motion is based on non-exhaustion of administrative remedies, 15 Defendants must comply with the notice and procedural requirements in Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 16 1162 (9th Cir. 2014). See Stratton v. Buck, 697 F.3d 1004, 1008 (9th Cir. 2012).

17 b. Plaintiff's opposition to the motion for summary judgment or other dispositive 18 motion shall be filed with the Court and served on Defendants no later than twenty-eight days after 19 the date on which Defendants' motion is filed. The Ninth Circuit has held that the following notice 20 should be given to pro se plaintiffs facing a summary judgment motion:

21 The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek to have 22 your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules 23 of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

24 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment.
25 Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material 26 fact -- that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your 27 case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, 28 which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and 1 documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not 2 submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be 3 entered against you. If summary judgment is granted [in favor of the defendants], your 4 case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

5 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 962-63 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc).

6 Before filing his opposition, Plaintiff is advised to read the notice that will be provided to 7 him by Defendants when the motion is filed, and Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 8 and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986) (party opposing summary judgment must come 9 forward with evidence showing triable issues of material fact on every essential element of his 10 claim). Plaintiff is cautioned that because he bears the burden of proving his allegations in this 11 case, he must be prepared to produce evidence in support of those allegations when he files his 12 opposition to Defendants' summary judgment motion. Such evidence may include sworn 13 declarations from himself and other witnesses to the incident, copies of documents authenticated 14 by sworn declaration or discovery. Plaintiff will not be able to avoid summary judgment simply 15 by repeating the allegations of his complaint.

16 The same evidentiary requirement applies if Defendants file a motion for summary 17 judgment for failure to exhaust administrative remedies. To oppose this motion, Plaintiff must 18 present any evidence he may have which tends to show that he did exhaust administrative 19 remedies or was excused from doing so. Again, the evidence may be in the form of declarations, 20 that is statements of fact from himself or other witnesses signed under penalty of perjury, copies of 21 documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they are 22 authentic, or discovery documents such as answers to interrogatories or depositions. In 23 considering a summary judgment motion for failure to exhaust administrative remedies, the Court 24 can decide disputed issues of fact about this portion of the case. See generally Albino, 747 F.3d at 25 1172-73; Stratton, 697 F.3d at 1008.

26 c. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fourteen days after the date 27 Plaintiff's opposition is filed.

28 d. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due. No hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

1 6. Discovery may be taken in this action in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 2 Procedure. No further court order pursuant to Rule 30(a)(2) or Local Rule 16 is required before 3 the parties may conduct discovery.

4 7. All communications by Plaintiff with the Court must be served on Defendants, or 5 Defendants' counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to 6 Defendants or counsel.

7 8. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the Court 8 informed of any change of address by filing a separate paper with the clerk headed "Notice of 9 Change of Address," and must comply with the Court's orders in a timely fashion. Failure to do so 10 may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 11 Procedure 41(b).

12 9. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable extensions will be granted. Any 13 motion for an extension of time must be filed no later than three days prior to the deadline sought 14 to be extended.

15 10. The request for appointment of counsel is denied without prejudice.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.
